

Girls Lacrosse Assistant Coach: Jen Corcoran

Ms. Corcoran is a 2006 graduate of Monmouth University. She played four years on defense for the Hawks where she was a team leader in ground balls. She was also team captain her senior year. Prior to Monmouth, Ms. Corcoran was a standout player at Archbishop Carroll where she led the Patriots to their first two Catholic League championships in school history. She also has been a coach with Phantastix for 10 years. Ms. Corcoran is a certified special education teacher within the Haverford School District. She is part of a big lacrosse family; her sisters, Jill and Jackie, both played at Syracuse, and her youngest sister, Jamie, played at the University of New Hampshire. Ms. Corcoran loves coaching because she loves helping young girls gain confidence and other skills like teamwork and accountability, which will help them become successful, dynamic young women.
